

Financial Independence at Retirement

How Many People Are Financially Independent During Retirement?

Most people want to be financially independent during their retirement years. Government statistics, however, tell a different story.

According to the Social Security Administration, of people age 65 and older:

34.0% have incomes under $20,000

26.5% have incomes from $20,000 to $40,000

Only 18.8% have incomes in excess of $75,000

20.7% have incomes from $40,000 to $75,000

Source: Social Security Administration, Office of Policy, Income of the Population 55 or older, 2014; released April 2016

Which group will you be in?

The secret to financial independence at retirement is to commit to a plan today, while you're working and earning an income, a portion of which can be saved for your future financial security!

